

“Blankets from my Sheep”
Saturday, December 1 at 11:00 a.m. Ages 3+

What stories and songs do you know about lambs or spinning wheels? Did you know there were once woolen mills in Raritan? Come to the Raritan Public Library to meet Martha Gonzalez, an artist who spins, dyes and weaves wool from the sheep she raises. Learn how sheep are shorn, the special qualities of their wool, and how it is spun into yarn, colored using dyes made from flowers, and woven for us to use. Handle the wool and experience a spinning wheel and a weaving loom in action!

Registration required.
