Nurturing the Musical Child Within - Improvisation!

Wednesday, April 17, 6 p.m. Ages 6-14

April is Poetry Month, and rhythm is to music as meter is to poetry! Come to the library for this highly regarded confidence-building workshop which engages each child as a participant in the creation of music!

Sounds & Styles LLC is a highly interactive 21st century music education program which encourages artistic self-expression and the discovery of inner joy through various instruments, simple body percussion, and even spoken words, and teaches collaboration and mutual respect. Sign up early, participation number is limited for the ideal educational experience. Registration is required.
